

Environmental Products + Services for Your Company

Choosing to purchase products or services that have a reduced impact on human health and/or the environment can save you money and ensure a sustainable, healthy workplace. Below are resources, for a wide variety of industries, for purchasing green products.

Why buy green products?

- Improve worker health and safety
- Reduce hazardous material handling and disposal costs
- Reduced liabilities by using safer products
- Improve company image

Environmentally Preferable Purchasing Links

Finding safer products just got easier! EPA's Safer Choice Label www2.epa.gov/saferchoice

Green Seal Certified Products

www.greenseal.org/FindGreenSealProductsAndServices.aspx

Electronic Product Environmental Assessment Tool

www.epeat.net

Energy Star, Energy Efficient Products Procurement

<https://www.energystar.gov/products>

INFORM - Cleaning for Health Report & Fact Sheets

www.informinc.org/pages/research/chemical-hazards-prevention/reports/104.html

www.informinc.org/pages/research/chemical-hazards-prevention/fact-sheets.html

UMass Lowell Toxics Use Reduction Institute (TURI) Cleaning Laboratory

UMass Lowell Toxics Use Reduction Institute \(TURI\) Green Cleaning Lab

EPA Sustainable Marketplace for greener products and services

<https://www.epa.gov/greenerproducts>

US Govt. Federal Facilities Environmental Stewardship & Compliance Assistance Center, Buying Green: Supporting Databases and Tools

<https://www.fedcenter.gov/programs/buygreen/#tools>

National Geographic - The Green Guide

<http://environment.nationalgeographic.com/environment/green-guide/buying-guides/>