Water System Owner Certification

This section is required only if Water System Operator and Applicant are separate entities. If the applicant is not the water system owner, the owner or a legally authorized representative of the owner is also required to sign off on the permit to operate application. This certification is necessary for the Division to retain proper records of system ownership. A signature acknowledging that the Water System Operator and the Applicant are separate entities does not create, extend, limit, or destroy any legal right of signatories to this document. Please complete the following section ONLY if the applicant is not the water system owner.
