

How to Find Current Lists of Businesses, by Town or County, on the Vermont Department of Labor Website

The Vermont Department of Labor (DOL) has two free websites that share recent business information with the public. One website provides a count of businesses in a specific town and the other provides business lists for each county, or for a business sector in a county. These tools can help Solid Waste Management Entities develop an outreach contact list and determine how many businesses they need to contact to fulfill their SWIP business outreach requirement (to provide outreach to at least 2% or 20 businesses/institutions (whichever is greater) within their jurisdiction each year and reach at least 10% of the businesses and institutions within their region by the end of the SWIP term).

Find the Number of Businesses and Institutions in a Town

This website allows anyone to look up the number of businesses and institutions in a town. The data set contains most businesses in Vermont (all the businesses in the unemployment insurance program) and is updated quarterly. The data comes in six months after the quarter ends. Even though the data set does not include many sole proprietorships and railroads, DOL reports that this website is the most accurate way for SWMEs to count businesses in a town.
