

Act 173: Surface Water Diversion and Transfer Study Group
Meeting #2

May 17, 2021
1:00 –3:00 PM

Agenda

- 1. Introductions
- 2. Vermont Climate and Precipitation Patterns
Dr. Lesley-Ann L. Dupigny-Giroux, Vermont State Climatologist, will present on Vermont climate focusing on precipitation patterns and how they may change under climate change.
- 3. Review of work done by the VLS Environmental Clinic about how other states Regulatory regime for water withdrawals
Mason Overstreet, Staff Attorney, presents work from the Vermont Law School Environmental Clinic on how other states approach to regulation of water withdrawals.
- 4. Overview of Regulatory Review of Interbasin Transfers in Vermont
Jeff Crocker will review the process the Agency uses when conducting regulatory review of an interbasin transfer using the Killington / Pico Interconnect snowmaking system as an example.
- 5. Other Items
  - a. Revisit required Committee deliverables and to-be-performed research objectives
  - b. Discuss the need for a designated facilitator/moderator for meetings.