

Vermont Department of Environmental Conservation

Agency of Natural Resources

Watershed Management Division St. Johnsbury Regional Office 1229 Portland Street, Suite 201 St. Johnsbury, VT 05819 www.watershedmanagement.vt.gov

[fax] 802-748-6687 [cell] 802-279-1143

AUTHORIZATION TO CONDUCT NEXT FLOOD MEASURES

Pursuant to Section F of the Vermont Stream Alteration General Permit

Mailing Address: Po Box III Websterville, VT. 05678 Project Location: Sewer Live Bernd Tockey Hours (VT I4) Email: Crogers Corresponding Sewer Sewer Live Bernd Tockey Hours (VT I4) The Secretary of the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources (VT ANR) has determined that: 1. This project authorizes the emergency stabilization of the nice was bank advantaged to the survey bank. 2. The proposed activity is eligible for coverage under the VT ANR Stream Alteration General Permit Next Flood Measures. 3. The proposed activity will meet the terms and conditions of Section F of the General Permit provided: a) The project will be completed and approved as shown on the plan dated N/A prepared Project will be completed and approved by the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources. b) The project is proportional to the threat and conditioned to cease when the threat to life or to improved property has ended. c) The project will meet the standards detailed in subsection E.2.1 and E.2.2 of the General Permit. e) The project will meet Stream Alteration Standards to the greatest extent possible. f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. j) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM NORK PLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.	Project Number: NFM - 3 - 503 - 2016
Project Location: SEWER LINE BEHIND TOCKEY HOLLOW (VT 14) Email: Crogars & barrefown . org The Secretary of the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources (VT ANR) has determined that: 1. This project authorizes	Applicant Name: TOWN OF BARRE % CARL ROGERS Phone: 802. 479.9331
Project Location: SEWER LINE BEHIND TOCKEY HOLLOW (VT 14) Email: Crogars & barrefown . org The Secretary of the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources (VT ANR) has determined that: 1. This project authorizes	Mailing Address: PO BOY 114 WEBSTERVILLE, VT. 05678
Email: Croques & barretown.org The Secretary of the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources (VT ANR) has determined that: 1. This project authorizes	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
The Secretary of the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources (VT ANR) has determined that: 1. This project authorizes
1. This project authorizes the emergency stabilization of the river bank advacant an exposed source that runs along the Stream Br. 2. The proposed activity is eligible for coverage under the VT ANR Stream Alteration General Permit – Next Flood Measures. 3. The proposed activity will meet the terms and conditions of Section F of the General Permit provided: a) The project will be completed and approved as shown on the plan dated NA prepared by NORK PLAN IN PROGRESS and approved by the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources. b) The project is proportional to the threat and conditioned to cease when the threat to life or to improved property has ended. c) The project will not result in a threat to life, public health or safety. d) The project will meet the standards detailed in subsection E.2.1 and E.2.2 of the General Permit. e) The project will meet Stream Alteration Standards to the greatest extent possible. f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM NORK FLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.
2. The proposed activity is eligible for coverage under the VT ANR Stream Alteration General Permit – Next Flood Measures. 3. The proposed activity will meet the terms and conditions of Section F of the General Permit provided: a) The project will be completed and approved as shown on the plan dated N/A prepared by MDRK PLAN IN PROGRESS and approved by the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources. b) The project is proportional to the threat and conditioned to cease when the threat to life or to improved property has ended. c) The project will meet the standards detailed in subsection E.2.1 and E.2.2 of the General Permit. e) The project will meet Stream Alteration Standards to the greatest extent possible. f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM NORK PLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.	1. This project authorizes the emergency stabilization of the river bank
2. The proposed activity is eligible for coverage under the VT ANR Stream Alteration General Permit – Next Flood Measures. 3. The proposed activity will meet the terms and conditions of Section F of the General Permit provided: a) The project will be completed and approved as shown on the plan dated	adjacent an exposed somewhite that runs along the Striems Br.
Measures. 3. The proposed activity will meet the terms and conditions of Section F of the General Permit provided: a) The project will be completed and approved as shown on the plan dated N/A prepared by NORK PLAN IN PROGRESS and approved by the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources. b) The project is proportional to the threat and conditioned to cease when the threat to life or to improved property has ended. c) The project will not result in a threat to life, public health or safety. d) The project will meet the standards detailed in subsection E.2.1 and E.2.2 of the General Permit. e) The project will meet Stream Alteration Standards to the greatest extent possible. f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM NORK PLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.
3. The proposed activity will meet the terms and conditions of Section F of the General Permit provided: a) The project will be completed and approved as shown on the plan dated N/A, prepared by NORK PLAN IN PROGRESS, and approved by the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources. b) The project is proportional to the threat and conditioned to cease when the threat to life or to improved property has ended. c) The project will not result in a threat to life, public health or safety. d) The project will meet the standards detailed in subsection E.2.1 and E.2.2 of the General Permit. e) The project will meet Stream Alteration Standards to the greatest extent possible. f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM NORK PLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.
a) The project will be completed and approved as shown on the plan dated N/A, prepared by NORK PLAN IN PROGRESS and approved by the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources. b) The project is proportional to the threat and conditioned to cease when the threat to life or to improved property has ended. c) The project will not result in a threat to life, public health or safety. d) The project will meet the standards detailed in subsection E.2.1 and E.2.2 of the General Permit. e) The project will meet Stream Alteration Standards to the greatest extent possible. f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM NORK PLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.
by NORK PLAN IN PROGRESS and approved by the Vermont Agency of Natural Resources. b) The project is proportional to the threat and conditioned to cease when the threat to life or to improved property has ended. c) The project will not result in a threat to life, public health or safety. d) The project will meet the standards detailed in subsection E.2.1 and E.2.2 of the General Permit. e) The project will meet Stream Alteration Standards to the greatest extent possible. f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM NORK FLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards. has ended. c) The project will not result in a threat to life, public health or safety. d) The project will meet the standards detailed in subsection E.2.1 and E.2.2 of the General Permit. e) The project will meet Stream Alteration Standards to the greatest extent possible. f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM WORK PLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.
c) The project will not result in a threat to life, public health or safety. d) The project will meet the standards detailed in subsection E.2.1 and E.2.2 of the General Permit. e) The project will meet Stream Alteration Standards to the greatest extent possible. f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM WORK PLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.	b) The project is proportional to the threat and conditioned to cease when the threat to life or to improved property
d) The project will meet the standards detailed in subsection E.2.1 and E.2.2 of the General Permit. e) The project will meet Stream Alteration Standards to the greatest extent possible. f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM Work PLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.	has ended.
e) The project will meet Stream Alteration Standards to the greatest extent possible. f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM WORK FLAW. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.	c) The project will not result in a threat to life, public health or safety.
f) A pre-construction meeting is held between the contractor, owner/applicant, and the ANR River Management Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM WORK FUND. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.	d) The project will meet the standards detailed in subsection E.2.1 and E.2.2 of the General Permit.
Engineer. g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM WORK FLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.
g) The River Management Engineer is notified by phone or email when construction begins and when the project is complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM WORK PLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.
complete. h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work. i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM Work PLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.
i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM WORK PLAN. If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.
If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.	h) A final construction inspection is required for any culvert and bridge related work.
Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.	i) Additional conditions: CALL OR EMAIL TO CONFIRM WORK PLAN.
	If there are any changes in the project plan or deviation in construction from the plan, the Permittee must notify the River Management Engineer immediately. If the project is constructed as you have described, as shown on the above referenced approved plans and according to the Alyssa B. Schuren, ANR DEC Commissioner	above conditions, there is no reason to expect any violation of Vermont Water Quality Standards.
	Alyssa B. Schuren, ANR DEC Commissioner
	Patrick Ross, P.E., River/Management Engineer

BARRETOWN EXPOSED $