

Activities you can do at the Northshore Wetland:

- Biking on the Burlington bike path
- Canoeing/Kayaking in Lake Champlain
- Exploring the beach
- Swimming
- Walking your dog
- Enjoy a wooden fort
- Having fun in nature

How to get to Northshore Wetland:

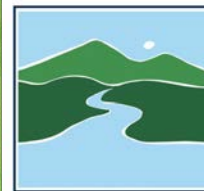

If you're biking on the Burlington Bike Path coming from North Beach, you will come across a large staircase, pictured above. The staircase is located past Leddy Park. These stairs lead straight to the wetland.

Northshore Wetland

Come visit the Northshore Wetland in Burlington, Vermont to enjoy some time outside!

VERMONT DEPARTMENT OF
ENVIRONMENTAL CONSERVATION
WATERSHED
MANAGEMENT DIVISION
WETLANDS PROGRAM

The Burlington Bike Path travels past the Northshore Wetland. Take a trip to the wetland by foot, bike, roller blades or skateboard and enjoy the scenery of Lake Champlain along the way!

Enjoy observing wildlife and wetland plants while hanging out in a wooden fort!

Whatever activity you're looking to do, Northshore Wetland will provide beautiful views.

